

This puzzle is a Pittsburgh version of the game Scotland yard, in which players use logical deduction to locate "Mr. X", whose location is secret but modes of transportation are public.

Given the transportation and meeting constraints there is only one unique solution.

Spy 1 movements

(Start)
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by metro and met spy 4
 Traveled by bus crossed a bridge

ON
 D
 B
 H
 P
 G
 ET

Spy 2 movements

(Start)
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by bus
 Traveled by bus
 Traveled by bus and met spy 3
 Traveled by bus and met spy 4
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by bus crossed a bridge

C
 NT
 Y
 E
 N
 M
 I
 Q
 T
 G
 ET

Spy 3 movements

(Start)
 Traveled by metro crossed a bridge and met spy 4
 Traveled by metro
 Traveled by bus
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by taxi and met spy 2
 Traveled by bus
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by taxi and met spy 4
 Traveled by bus
 Traveled by taxi and met spy 4

J
 W
 G
 I
 L
 M
 E
 V
 N
 P
 H

Spy 4 movements

(Start)
 Traveled by taxi crossed a bridge and met spy 3
 Traveled by bus
 Traveled by bus
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by metro and met spy 1
 Traveled by bus and met spy 2
 Traveled by bus
 Traveled by bus and met spy 3
 Traveled by taxi
 Traveled by taxi and met spy 3

MO
 W
 U
 LI
 Y
 G
 I
 M
 N
 B
 H

When located on the map and read left to right, the highlighted letters spell the answer, TULIP.